DESTINY WILSON	§

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

A detention hearing has been held in accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f). Detention of the defendant pending trial in this case is necessary because there is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear. The evidence against the defendant meets the probable cause standard. The defendant is currently on probation and apparently committed the underlying offense while under court ordered supervision. Therefore, the defendant has shown she is either unwilling or unable to comply with court ordered supervision. However, should the defendant be able to resolve any probation violation warrant and otherwise present a suitable release plan, the defendant may file a motion to reopen the detention hearing. The findings and conclusions contained in the Pretrial Services Report are adopted.

The defendant is committed to the custody of the United States Marshal or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

ORDERED this 23rd day of June, 2017.
